Who is collecting the data?

Navan Camera Club are committed to protecting and respecting your privacy. For any personal data you provide for the purposes of your membership, Navan Camera Club is the Data Controller and is responsible for storing and otherwise processing that data in a fair, lawful, secure, and transparent way.

What data is being collected?

You may give us information about you by filling in forms or by corresponding with us by phone, e-mail or otherwise. This includes information you provide when you register with the Navan Camera Club, [subscribe to our newsletter, or participate in discussion boards on our website (www.navancameraclub.ie)] The information you give us may include your name, e-mail address, phone number, photography skills and preferences.

What is the legal basis for processing the data?

The reason we need your Data is to be able to administer your membership and provide the membership services you are signing up to when you register with the club. Our lawful basis for processing your personal data is that we have a contractual obligation to you as a member to provide the services in line with your registration.

Will the data be shared with any third parties?

Club does not store or transfer your personal data outside of Ireland and does not supply any personal data it holds to any other third party.

How will the information be used?

We will maintain a database for all current members, and this will enable us to communicate with you as and when necessary.

How long will the data be stored for?

We will hold your personal data on file for as long as you are a member with us. Members data is updated every year on annual membership forms. We may keep your e-mail address for future communication purpose (anniversary events, special meetings etc)

Your rights regarding your personal data

As a data subject you may have the right at any time to request access to, rectification or erasure of your personal data. As a data subject you are not obliged to share your personal data with the Club. If you choose not to share your personal data with us, we may not be able to register or administer your membership.

Remove personal data from Navan Camera Club database.

You have right anytime to remove your personal data from the Club. In that occasion, please contact navancc@gmail.com with request to delete all personal information

Beginners/Improvers Course

2024-25

The above course will be run again this year by our award winning, local photographer, Paul Jones

The course will commence on Thursday evenings each week from September 26th to Thursday 24th October 2024

The course will be in person at our clubrooms in The Skryne GAA clubhouse
(<https://maps.app.goo.gl/8j4uaBXd4KM7AMwp9>)

The tutor will be in touch regarding times and any changes that may be made to the programme. There will also be a photographic outing to practice your newly acquired skills at a later date to be decided with the tutor

The course is suitable for complete beginners and Paul will talk about and demonstrate topics including Camera settings, exposure, focusing, composition and basic editing techniques.

The course is also suitable for photographers with some experience who wish to brush up on and add to their previous knowledge and experience.

The Fee of €110 for the course includes the annual membership fee, which represents excellent value given the excellent feedback on the course over the last few years

Fees are to be paid as part of application fee on form above.

The 2024-25 NCC Season

Our New Season starts on the 2nd of September 2024 with an introduction night and runs through to the end of May 2025. We are again based at Skryne GAA clubhouse with all meetings commencing at 7.30pm (Unless otherwise notified). The programme up to the end of the calendar year, 2024, is available on the programme section on the club website (<https://www.navancameraclub.ie>)

The club programme will have a combination of online zoom presentations by international photographic experts in their fields, in-person talks and demonstrations by local photographers, and judging of club competitions again by local photographers. There will also be “members nights” for which the members decide on the format and content they wish to have,

Several Photographic Outings will be organized (dates on the programme), which will allow members to meet up, take some photos and socialize.

As always, we encourage all members to put forward their suggestions and ideas for consideration via navancc@gmail.com

Note: All members who enroll for the Beginners / Improvers Course are automatically members of the club and are very welcome, in fact encouraged to attend all the events on the program, and enter competitions

Rules and Regulations

Navan Camera Club WhatsApp Group Guidelines:

Will the data be shared with any third parties?

Club does not store or transfer your personal data outside of Ireland and does not supply any personal data it holds to any other third party.

1. The WhatsApp group is set up by the Navan Camera Club (NCC), with members of the committee as administrators.
2. WhatsApp group is intended as a convenient way to distribute club information to the members quickly and efficiently and for members to communicate with each other regarding sharing of information, tips, techniques on outings and photography.
3. It is not necessary to respond to every post unless it is requested e.g., RSVP, request for volunteers.
4. If your message is not relevant to majority of group members, please consider if it is more appropriate to reply by way of a personal message. In the event of too many messages being posted that are only relevant to a minority of group members the group administrators may request the conversation be continued outside the group.
5. Please respect the time you post. Early in the morning, and late at night messages are discouraged where possible.
6. The group should not be used to post private or confidential messages or express personal opinions or gossip. Any opinions expressed are the opinions of individual members and may not be representative of the whole group. Group administrators are not responsible for any comments posted by individual members of the group.
7. Inappropriate posts include - using inappropriate language, personal attacks or insulting messages, bullying of any member, voicing grievances with the club or with individual members of the group.
8. For individual concerns, please raise these directly with the member concerned, or, where necessary, the committee by contacting navancc@gmail.com
9. Please do not use the group to discuss club related issues.
10. The group administrators, will have the right to restrict admission, remove or ban anyone from the group without any notification.
11. By accepting a request to join the group participants agree to these group rules.

Please note, by accepting the request to join, you are sharing your phone number with other members within the group. Once you join, you always have the option to leave the group.

Navan Camera Club Competition Rules

There are comprehensive and easy to use rules for entry and presentation of images to the club competitions.
